

The Missing Piece of Content Protection

delevit.

Hi there, I'm Alex co-founder of delevit

I saw firsthand how digital piracy hinders creativity and profitability for creators. This ignited a passion in me to create delevit.

We're deeply committed to empowering creators with reliable solutions to remove pirated content and reclaim control over premium content.

I invite you to reclaim control over your content, elevate your business, and secure the hard-earned rewards that you deserve.

empowering creators worldwide.

Over 99% of Creators are NOT reporting Leaked Content

As of August 2023 Google has delisted over 7,104,569,460 URLs due to piracy

Imagine if more creators reported piracy...

Limitations of tools Creators use

In-Platform Tools (DRM, Watermarking, AI, etc.)

👤 ! Limited Scope: Works within your platform.

DMCA Takedown Service or Lawyer

👤 ! Managed: Slow review and takedown process.

👤 ! Expensive: A significant financial hurdle for most creators.

👤 ! Limited Results: Bots fail to accurately capture infringements.

Manual Self-Reporting

👤 ! Difficult: Need to Copy-Paste, switch apps and manage links.

👤 ! High Burnout Risk: Very time-consuming process.

👤 ! Privacy Concerns: Exposes your personal information.

👤 ! No Tracking: Difficult to gauge your effectiveness.

👤 ! Overwhelming: Nuanced and complicated.

What Creators are missing

✓ Simple Self-Reporting:
Creator easily captures and addresses leaked content where fans are most likely to find it.

✓ Affordability:
Solutions that break the bank aren't necessarily better, they are just more expensive.

✓ Increased Revenue:
Creators can see increases of as much as 20% after a month of leaked content removals.

✓ Progress Tracking:
Comprehensive progress tracking with visible results and automated follow-ups.

Self-Reporting Made Easy

The missing piece for every creator is the ability to self report leaked content with just two clicks.

Takedowns while Browsing: Report any piece of leaked content on the web with just two clicks while browsing the web. It's that easy!

Quick and Easy Signup: It takes less than 5 minutes to set up a delevit account and send leaked content for removal.

Minimal Time Commitment: Initiate leaked content takedowns in just a few clicks with the delevit plugin.

Free Plan for all Creators: Unlimited Link Collection and Export functionality empower every Creator with Content Protection.
